David W. Armenta

Councilmember

David W. Armenta was born in the city of Commerce in 1950. At age 14, he and his family moved to Pico Rivera, where he attended Burke Jr. High School before graduating from El Rancho High School in 1968. After graduating from Rio Hondo College, David earned his Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from the University of Redlands. He also received a Masters Degree in Public Law & Contracts from Northrop University Law Center.

With his education and experience in business and contracts, David started two small businesses and, in 2001, he founded Armenta & Associates, a municipal consulting company to help local governments, public agencies and private business.

David was elected to the Pico Rivera City Council in 2001. This is his appointment to public office. Aside from his Council duties, David also serves as a member of the Sister Cities Committee and the Christmas Baskets Committee. He was also appointed to represent the City as a member of the League of California Cities.

David has previously coached baseball for the Rivera Baseball Association and in his spare time enjoys helping with city youth and senior organizations.
